

5th CALL FOR CITM ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE GRANTS

The call for CITM Academic Excellence Grants covers 100% of the registration fee for the first year of bachelor's degree courses at the CITM for the 2024/2025 academic year, and the grants are aimed at students who have completed the second year of upper secondary school education or undergraduate training cycle with an excellent academic record (9-10).

This call includes three grants which cover the full registration fee for 60 ECTS for the first year (€ 6,360) for any of the three official bachelor's degree courses taught by the Image Processing and Multimedia Technology Center: the bachelor's degree in Design, Animation and Digital Art; the bachelor's degree in Digital Design and Multimedia Technologies, and the bachelor's degree in Video Game Design and Development.

This call will be subject to the following conditions:

1. The application period for the CITM Academic Excellence Grants begins on 4 June and ends on 28 June 2024 (both dates inclusive).
2. People who meet the following requirements may apply for these grants:
  - Applicants who were second year students in upper secondary school education or undergraduate training cycle during the 2023/2024 academic year.
  - Applicants with an excellent upper secondary school education or undergraduate training cycle academic record.
  - Applicants who selected one of the official bachelor's degrees taught at the CITM as the first choice in university pre-registration in the June 2024 call.
  - Applicants who are under 25 years old.
3. The documentation required to submit an application is:
  - I. National identity document or Foreigner identity number.
  - II. Your upper secondary school education academic record.
  - III. Letter of motivation. Explain the most important aspects of your life, in both your education and in the social and personal sphere, mentioning your skills and unusual projects. List the personal motivations that have led you to choose the CITM bachelor's degree course that you would like to study, and your future professional development. The letter of motivation may not exceed 3 pages.
  - IV. Awards or recognition for research studies undertaken in the second year of upper secondary school education or undergraduate training cycle (optional).

Letters of motivation from minors must be co-signed by a parent and/or legal guardian, and must be accompanied by a copy of their national identity document or foreigner identity number.

4. Applications may only be made online, via the link www.citm.upc.edu/cat/ajutscitm, filling out the information requested in each field and attaching the documentation requested in this call in PDF format.

5. The CITM may request additional or original documentation at any time in order to complete or verify the contents of the application.
6. Five finalists with the best academic records will be chosen from all the applications received. The Selection Committee, made up of the academic director and two lecturers at the CITM, will assess the profile of the applicants according to the documentation provided, and will select the two winners.
7. The decision on the award of grants is scheduled for 10 July 2024.
8. All applicants who have correctly submitted the application will be notified of the result by telephone and/or e-mail on Thursday 11 July 2024.
9. The decisions of the Selection Committee are not subject to any kind of appeal and are final.
10. The beneficiaries of the grant must register for the bachelor's degree course they have chosen between 12 and 17 July 2024. Failure to do so will entail loss of the grant.
11. Each applicant may only apply for one grant.
12. The Center for Image and Multimedia Technology reserves the right to change these conditions without prior notice, by publishing them at web www.citm.upc.edu/cat/ajutscitm, and to cancel this call.
13. Submitting an application to the CITM Academic Excellence Grants programme entails acceptance of these conditions.
